

The Canadian HIV/AIDS Legal Network

and

The Law and Health Initiative
of the Open Society Institute Public Health Program

invite you to

HIV/AIDS and the Law: Canada and Beyond

An evening reception to coincide with the XVI International AIDS Conference featuring:

William Flanagan, Dean, Queen's University Faculty of Law, Canada
Mark Heywood, Head, AIDS Law Project, South Africa

Wednesday, August 16, 6:30-8:30 p.m.

Donald Lamont Learning Centre, Law Society of Upper Canada (East Entrance)
130 Queen Street West, Toronto

All are welcome, including those not registered for the AIDS Conference.

Attendance is free. Refreshments will be served.

RSVP by Monday, August 14 to osi.rsvp@gmail.com

Directions to the Law Society of Upper Canada from the Metro Toronto Convention Centre:

By foot (20-30 minutes): From the MTCC, walk east along Front St. W. Turn left on York Street and walk five large city blocks to Queen Street. The Law Society is at the intersection of York St. and Queen St. The Lamont Learning Centre is on the east side of the building. By subway (15-20 minutes): From Union Station, take the University line north two stations to Osgoode Station. The station exits at the corner of University Ave. and Queen St. The Law Society is a short walk east down Queen St. The Lamont Learning Centre is on the east side of the building.